Please check the renewal requirement option you have completed:

- Attendance at an ICISF course of 13 hours or greater completed. This does not include Group Intervention or Assisting Individuals in Crisis courses.
- Attendance at the 2015 or 2017 World Congress for 13 hours or greater; Certificate of Completion would be submitted for renewal.
- Completion of the Online CISM: Practical Review and Update Course
- Completion of UMBC's CISM Certification Exam; Certificate needs to be submitted with renewal application.
- One published article related to Crisis Intervention/CISM. The article has to have been published in a review journal during the time your certificate was valid.

To renew your certificate one of the above-mentioned options must be completed and submitted to ICISF along with the renewal application for review by the Certificate of Specialized Training Program Committee.

I understand that this is a "Certificate of Specialized Training" Program. A certificate of specialized training will be awarded for the documented completion of specialized ICISF Critical Incident Stress Management courses. The "Certificate of Specialized Training" attests to the completion of a standardized curriculum in Crisis Intervention. This certificate does not indicate competence in the field, nor does it provide certification in the field of CISM.
